

FUNERAL INFORMATION YOU CAN TRUST

The Funeral Consumers Alliance of Idaho is a volunteer, nonprofit organization that provides information on obtaining simple, affordable, and meaningful funerals.

Everyone has the right to know the options for obtaining economical funeral services. FCAI membership is open to all.

FCAI began in 1972 as the Idaho Memorial Association to serve residents of southern Idaho. We offer group presentations, printed materials, mortuary price surveys in southwest, south-central and southeast Idaho, and, in southwestern Idaho, discounted rates with a cooperating mortuary.

We are one of more than 100 similar groups across the country affiliated with the national Funeral Consumers Alliance (on the web at www.funerals.org) This affiliation assures reciprocal membership arrangements should members move or die while away from home.

HOW YOU BENEFIT

Objectivity. You get information from a group of knowledgeable volunteers who are not in the business of selling funeral services.

Knowledge. You become an educated consumer, receiving more for your funeral dollar while avoiding unnecessary expenses.

Confidence. You are able to shop for services with full knowledge of your rights. You enjoy the convenience of preplanning without the risks of prepayment.

Savings. You can take advantage of member-only pricing at a cooperating mortuary.

Caring. You leave behind a final gift—sparing loved ones making difficult decisions during a time of grief. You have the opportunity to discuss this important topic with family and friends so they know your wishes and can honor them.

MEMBERS RECEIVE

- A large-type booklet, "Before I Go, You Should Know," with forms for a Living Will and Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care, and more.
- Information on discounted prices for members at a cooperating mortuary.
- "Putting My House In Order" planning form to be sent to cooperating mortuary.
- A complete list of pamphlets on funeral-related subjects.
- Membership identification card for wallet or purse.

HOW IT WORKS

Once you complete your planning forms, give copies to your family, friends, and the cooperating mortuary.

Prepayment of services is usually not advised. FCAI brochures can provide you helpful information on alternatives.

CO-OP PLANS

Members may select either Direct Cremation or Immediate Burial at our cooperating mortuary.

Both plans include:

- Removing the body within the local area (within 25-miles between mortuary & place of death, crematory, cemetery, or place of interment, a one-way mileage charge of $2.00/mile for each additional mile beyond local area applies);
- Procuring and filing of necessary papers, certificates, and permits;
- Newspaper death notice.

Plan 1: Direct Cremation $ 780.00

The mortuary will:

- Supply a suitable container for the body—mortuary's choice
- Cremate remains
- Supply a standard container for cremated remains
- Hold the cremated remains for 30 days for disposition by family or representative

Plan 2: Immediate Burial

The mortuary will:

- Transport casket to the cemetery.

$ 805.00 – family provides casket,
$1205.00 - casket of mortuary selection.

(Contract prices are subject to periodic negotiation. Prices shown apply through April 2019.)

DID YOU KNOW?

- Funeral and burial costs average $8,000 nationwide.
- Nationally the average price of a casket purchased at a funeral home is $2,000.
- Embalming is not required for direct cremation or burial.
- You are not legally required to use a funeral home/mortician.
- Memorial services (without the body present) can be held almost anywhere—in a park, on a mountain top, at a church, community hall or home.
- You can make your own casket or purchase one locally or via the internet.
- Cremation is the least expensive option, requires no fancy casket or cemetery plot, and is kind to the environment.
- Anatomical donation can be arranged through Idaho State University (208) 282-4150.
<http://www2.isu.edu/bios/docs/donate/owbody.pdf>
- You can arrange a burial on the family farm.
- Scattering gardens are available for cremains in the Boise area.
- Your safety deposit box is a poor place to store your funeral instructions.
- Most individuals fail to share their funeral or burial wishes with their families.
